TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

HOME FOR AGED MEN,

JANUARY, 1882.

The close of another year calls for the Annual Report to the Corporation, which your Committee herewith submit, confident that an examination of its contents will satisfactorily exhibit the good service rendered by the institution under your supervision.

At the commencement of the year, thirty-six inmates enjoyed the resident privileges of the Home, while the number of outside beneficiaries was thirty-one. There have been admitted in the year, four as inmates, and eight added to the list for relief at their own homes; one of the last transferred, by request, from the House.

The deaths have included eight of the inmates, and five from the outside list, while aid was discontinued to three of the latter class, the number on January 1st, 1882, being thirty-one inmates and thirty-five receiving outside aid. The number of deaths in the year has been larger than usual, but simply, however, from natural causes, the general health in the Home having been uniformly good through the year, a testimonial to the fidelity of the Superintendent, and the excellent medical supervision constantly at command.

The Report of the Treasurer presents, in detail, the financial condition of the Corporation, to which you are respectfully referred for particulars. From this it will be observed that the Home has been the recipient during the year of a legacy of one thousand dollars from the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth S. Morton, and we have also to advise you, that the Home is to receive the sum of forty thousand dollars from the estate of the late Eben Wright, within the two years ensuing.

During the year, repairs necessary to the exterior of the main building have been made, as well as some changes in the lower part of the house, also, a remodelling of the out-buildings, by which are afforded increased convenience to the inmates, and a general improvement to the appearance of the grounds. These expenditures, while somewhat larger than usual, have been limited to what was essential for the present care of the property, bearing in mind the possible rearrangement of the upper part of the building, at no remote day, which has been referred to in previous reports, by the accomplishment of which, the accommodation for inmates might be materially increased, both as to numbers and as to the privacy of single apartments, so much desired.

In addition to the services of the regular physician our associate Dr. C. D. Homans, the Home has been indebted to Dr. J. W. Cushing for ready advice; also, to Drs. A. C. Ainsworth and G. H. Pierce for dental relief to its inmates, who have grateful acknowledgment. To the several clergymen who have ministered at the regular and occasional services, Rev. H. Blanchard, Rev. W. P. Tilden, Rev. H. M. King, Rev. O. T. Walker, and Rev. Messrs. Edwards and Pierce, the same recognition is sincerely tendered. To the young people of Mr. Tilden's society, for varied entertainments, as also to the Shawmut Society Flower Mission and Hollis Street Flower Mission, similar thanks are due.

As in previous years, the Home has been the recipient of numerous articles of comfort and utility, frequently without the names of the donors, for all of which the proper expression is extended, although a personal enumeration on the list may fail from the cause named.

To Mr. B. F. Sturtevant of Jamaica Plain, the Home is under obligation for donation of a blower, rendering useful service in the laundry.

The thoughtful friend from West Roxbury, who for ten years, at Christmas, has visited the Home, was this year prevented by sickness, but, at the hands of her granddaughter, each inmate received a token of her remembrance. To Mr. J. T. Rogers, who has repeatedly afforded the opportunity of driving with himself, and to Mr. G. M. King for the use of his carriages for the same purpose, due acknowledgment is now offered.

At the session of the last Legislature, an Act was passed, authorizing the "Home for Aged Men" to hold real and personal estate to the amount of $500,000; this Act was obtained in pursuance of a vote of the Corporation, authorizing the Directors to apply for the same, when, in their judgment it was necessary.

All of which is respectfully submitted by your Committee.

OLIVER DITSON,
JOHN REVERE,
JOHN T. BRADLEE.

At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT. 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever, shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present; the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this Charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home, may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall, from time to time, fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission, and in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10 Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property, or the amount of the proceeds of the same, shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven o'clock, from April 1 to October 1, and at eight o'clock from October 1 to April 1; dinner at one o'clock; tea at six o'clock from April 1 to October 1, and at five o'clock from October 1 to April 1.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. Washing and ironing shall, if practicable, be done on Mondays and Tuesdays.

9. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

10. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

11. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician; when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

12. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

20. The friends of inmates, and the public generally, may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to five, P. M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

21. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same, and if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

22. Inmates earning money must pay the same to the Executive Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the special use and benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of the Committee.

23. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.
